TEMPERANCE ADDRESS.

Delivered by Rev. C. L. Fisher, before the Independent Champions of the Red Cross, Aug 29th, 1876, and requested for publication

Ladies and gentlemen of the temperance cause:—As I have been invited at a previous meeting of this order to address you on the subject of temperance, I submit the following for your candid consideration and approval. No person who has taken but a half view of the enormity and crime intemperance has caused in towns, cities, States and throughout our whole nation, must see at once that it is making terrible slaughter upon the fair talents of our sons and fathers.

WHAT ALCOHOL COSTS THE NATION.

At the annual session of the National Health Association, held in Baltimore, Dr. H. O. Hitchcock, of Michigan, read a paper on "Public Health and Public Welfare." In this he made some estimates as to the annual cost of the use of alcohol to the nation. According to the life tables Insurance companies, in this country and England, the drunkards effective life is shortened about 20 years. This would give a loss on the death of 100,000 drunkards a year, of 2,000,000 years. This at $150 makes the annual loss 300,000,000, taken out of the productive industry of the country. Our actuaries estimate that for every death by alcohol there are two persons constantly sick, or incapacitated for labor from the same cause, involving another loss of $150 each per annum. Here are only two items of loss. Included the time spent by drinkers, and we have another and a larger one. Dr Hitchcock thus proceeds in his estimates. What do the insane caused by alcohol actually cost the nation each year? We have already seen that in a very moderate estimate 25 per cent. of the insane are made so by alcohol. Thus 9,358 of the 37,432 insane persons enumerated in the census tables are thus caused. These represent in each year a loss of effective life of 9,385 years, which, valued at $150 per year, gives a loss to the nation of $1,403,700. The average cost of maintaining and caring for these people cannot be less than $400 per week for each, which is the average cost in three State asylums of Massachusetts. This will represent a loss to the State of $1,965,180. But according to a table constructed by Mr. J. L. Copeland, and also to the English life tables, the average loss of effective life by their premature deaths is 6 3 years. Moreover, as those made insane by alcohol are generally made so at or before forty years of age, the loss of effective life for the insane should be based upon the loss in the first decades, viz: from 20 to 40 inclusive, which is an average for each person, male and female of 10.5. This gives a total loss of effective life for the 9,358 insane of 98,259 years, which at the value of $150 per year, gives a loss to the nation of $14,728,850. If we adopt Mr. Shuftesburg's estimate of the percentage of insanity caused by alcohol these figures should be increased by 140 per cent. and we should have for loss of effective life 235,821 years, with an estimated value of $35,373,150. The annual cost of supporting the insane, rendered so by alcohol, would then be raised to $4,716,432. What does the nation lose by the idiots made so by alcohol The whole number of idiotic persons reported in the census table in 24,527, of which 11,053 are caused by alcohol, the degenerate offspring of drunkards. If we correct these tables we have as the probable whole number of idiotic persons, 35,040, and the member traceable to alcohol or its effects, 17,080. The average cast for the care and support of these unfortunates must be at least $150 per year, making a loss to the nation of $2,562,000. Allowing that one half of these persons, if they are not imbecile, would die before maturity, and thus would have no effective life, there remains for the others a loss to the nation of all the effective life to which they should have been entitled, or 37.46 years each, giving a total loss of 319,998 years, with an estimated values of $47,996,900. As crime may properly be considered in one sense but a form or symptom of disease, and it has been, and perhaps fairly, shown that at least three-fourths of all the crimes committed in this nation may be traced more or less directly to the influence of alcohol, in our estimate of the losses of the nation from alcohol, the cost of the crimes committed annually in the country, and traceable to the influence of alcohol, should be included. Also their cost in the direct destruction of property, the loss of effective life by murder, and the punishment of criminals, and the cost of detecting, arresting, convicting and punishing criminals. Greatly to my regret, I have at hand no reliable dates from which an approximate estimate of their immense losses to the nation may be computed

I think it plain, however, that they must be counted by hundreds of millions. And yet infatuated men will sell to their fellow men that which they well know will ruin those that become addicted to its use. The drinking system is directly responsible for 20 per cent. of our idiots; 40 per cent. of our lunatics; 75 per cent. of our criminals, 90 per cent of our paupers, and 95 per cent. of the shiftless, ne'er-do well, broken down, broken-hearted, miserable people of our common wealth. So that the subject is of vital interest to the business man, the taxpayer, the physician, the philanthropist, the Christian, for every person concerned for the welfare of humanity. For the past ten years the cost of liquors in the United States has been $6,000,000,000, producing the death of five hundred thousand persons by drunkenness. Think of this O man! you that deal in the traffic, and then think of the poor wives, widows and orphans this liquor has made, the desolate homes, the bleeding hearts, the wretched beings it has sent to prison and to the gallows, to the poor house and asylum, and say if we should not, as a town, county or nation have some fears for our safety if these things long continue. There is no enormity or crime to which persons how well disposed and gentle at other times, may be impelled when under the influence of drink. Husbands and fathers are not only caused to neglect wives and families, but to inflict upon them the most revolting cruelties. The affections in families are blunted and obliterated, children are neglected and left without clothing, food or education and often forced into crime by their parents to procure money for them to spend in drink, or they are left to shift for themselves under the guidance of wicked associates, become hoodlums of the worst character, and are urged to commit crime to eke out a shiftless existence. O man could my voice be heard all over our town, State and nation, I would cry out and exclaim, that whenever any man is about to lift the glass think of those at home! Let the face of mother, of father, of wife, of child, of loved one, come between your eyes and rising cup. I speak for those who dare not speak for themselves. I throw into my voice the pleading of those whose aching hearts are silent, through dread and grief, and the fear of an untried expostulation. I warn you, I plead with you O fellow man, who ever you be, wherever you are, I beg of you to sell no more, to drink no more, lest you form a habit which has in it the awful sting of death and the victory of the grave, be admonished and be wise. Save yourselves from the drunkards grave and the drunkards eternity.

CLOTHES CLEANED AND DYED.—Mr. Felix McHugh having established a clothes cleaning and dyeing business at the Pollard House, is now ready to clean all ladies' and gentlemen's clothing, blankets, gloves, all kinds of laces, and merinos so that they will look as well as new. All kinds of dyeing done with neatness and dispatch. An experience of thirteen years in the East guarantees him to ensure satisfaction. Prices reasonable. Orders left at the dye works will be called for and returned. Give him a trial is all he asks. *

WESTERN STAR SALOON.—B. Perdola, the proprietor of this saloon which is situated on the west side of Center street, keeps constantly on hand the choicest beverages of all kinds and the best brands of cigars. Among his choice drinks are Perdola's favorite, pineapple, cabinet, Pendola's punches and the renowned ambrosial cocktails, all of which are daily dispensed at the Western Star. Every attention is paid to patrons. Order and civility is the rule at this saloon. *

ALLEN C. BRAGG, agent for the Home Mutual and Faneuil Hall Fire Insurance Companies, is prepared to insure your property against loss by fire, in the above first-class companies. Losses promptly adjusted and paid in gold coin. Rates law. Office at C. A. Bragg & Co.'s lumber yard, Reno, Nev. *

DON'T READ THIS!—If you do you will find that you can buy building lots better and in higher state of cultivation than any found in Reno, by calling on Stephen Conner, at the Nursery. jy23

SHERMAN & HYDE'S COLUMN

WEBER PIANOS ARE THE BEST

Never before in the history of piano forte manufacture has an instrument risen so rapidly in popular favor.

Its intrinsic merit and decided superiority over all others has caused ever musician and artist of note to adopt and recommend it.

Nilsson says, "I shall take every opportunity to recommend and praise your instruments."

Miss Kellogg says, "Your Pianos are my choice for the concert room and my own house."

Lucca says, "Your uprights are extraordinary instruments, and deserve their great popularity."

Patti says, "I have used the Piano of every celebrated maker, but give yours the preference over all."

Strauss says, "Your Pianos astonish me. I have never seen any Pianos which equal yours."

Wehli says, "Madame Parepa called your Pianos the finest in the United States. I fully endorse that opinion. They have no rival."

S. M. JAMISON, P. M.

THE State Fair at Reno opens a week from Monday. The most extensive preparations are being made and everything done which can contribute to the success of the undertaking. The purses offered are large and the premiums good, and it now remains for the people to take hold and make it a success by their entries and contributions and reap the benefits themselves.

SEMINARY BELL.—The bell for the Episcopal Seminary arrived yesterday and was taken to the school. It weighs 500 pounds. We trust there will be no other bells of the same weight on the premises.

NO BLOOD.

Last night at 11:20 o'clock a lively shooting occurred in the alley running from Chinatown to Second street, near the hospital. It seems that two white men went in Chinatown and going into a house began to abuse the women. A Chinaman interfered, when they knocked him down—stunning him. They continued their abuse until the Chinaman recovered his senses, and pulled a pistol, preparatory to starting a private graveyard of his own. At this the white men ran out of the house and up the alley, closely followed by the avenging Celestial, who fired three shots in rapid succession after them, but without hitting them. The men separated, one running toward Virginia street and the other toward Centre. No further trace could be found of them. Rumors of men being killed were circulated in the little crowd that gathered, but a careful personal examination failed to substantiate them. Chinatown was in a perfect furore of excitement, and they wanted blood—whole bucketsful. Some of these times a "civilized" white man will pay for such rascality with his life.

BURGLARS.—Night before last a burglar attempted to break into the residence of Abe Hartley, the C. P. baggage master. He made so much noise that Mrs. Hartley, who was alone, was aroused, and she succeeded in scaring him off. At another residence a man was noticed hanging around all day and this caused the people to keep watch that night. At midnight they found the man in the yard working at a window. They tried to capture him but he succeeded in escaping. Unfortunately they had no firearms. Another person accidentally discovered that the hinges of a little-used door were both unscrewed from the door, which was then closed and locked as it all right. His suspicions were aroused and for safety he nailed a board firmly across the door. That night he heard a man working away at the door to get it open. A pistol was shot at him, with no other effect than to cause him to clear the fence at a bound and get around the corner in short order. We heard of other attempts, all of which admonish us to beware and prepare for the protection of property. Thieves are either very plentiful or very industrious now. We might remind our readers in this connection that the game law is out now, and that a robber makes splendid shooting, either sitting or on the fly. Try No. 6 bird-shot.

RUNAWAY.—Yesterday the Wright brothers were riding down Virginia street in a light wagon drawn by a pair of grays. When in front of Beck's store a bridle broke, causing the animals to become unmanageable. They ran the wagon against a post at the corner of Virginia and Second streets. They became detached from the vehicle and started to run away. John Wright, who was holding the ribbons, held on until he was dragged over the dashboard and fell full length in the street. Seeing that he would be dragged if he held on, he very wisely let go. As it was he sustained no damage. The horses were captured and after a little repairing all went on their ways rejoicing.

NONSENSE.—It has been stated that 23,000 tickets were sold at the C. P. R. R. office during the month of August, and that 15,000 were for the East. It is something new to travelers if tickets are selling for one dollar each. Our item yesterday morning said the receipts from ticket sales for the month of August were $23,000—$15,000 of which was for Eastern tickets. A material difference indeed.

INQUEST.—Coroner Jones held an inquest on the body of Thos. Fitzgerald, who died from an overdose of morphine at Verdi a day or two since, on Thursday. Fitzgerald was a native of Milwaukee. He has relatives at both Milwaukee and St. Louis. The papers of those places will confer a favor by publishing the fact of his death that the relatives may come forward and get some effects left by the deceased.

POSTING BILLS.—Vice President Chamberlain has sent out a man to post the small Fair bills around Virginia, Gold Hill, Silver City, Dayton, Empire, Carson and other places, so as to insure their being kept before the people, and prevented from being scattered promiscously in back yards. A good idea.

THE Washoe County Democratic Central Committee will meet at the office of Thos. E. Haydon, at 2 o'clock P. M. to-day, to take into consideration the protest to the so-called "People's Democratic" Primary, held at Reno on the 24th ult. All Democrats, and none others, are invited to attend.

THERE will be a "Children's Service" at the Congregational Church to-morrow morning. Sermon by Rev. Mr. Powell and singing by the Sunday school.

WORK on the Episcopal Seminary is steadily going on, and the building will be turned over to the Bishop by the 20th inst.

THE WEEKLY JOURNAL.

The WEEKLY JOURNAL, published every Saturday, will be furnished to those desiring it at $4.00 per year in advance. It will contain the local news of the week, a careful summary of the State, Pacific Coast and mining news, together with a variety of miscellaneous and editorial matter, containing more reading than any weekly paper ever published in the county. Those desiring to subscribe for the WEEKLY JOURNAL will please call at the publication office.

BOOTS AND SHOES.—Take a look at Sunderland's new advertisement. His new Fall and Winter stock is all in, and no wonder he advertises. It is the largest and finest he has ever brought to the town. He proposes to sell it in sixty days, and his customers and everybody besides, can during that time, get boots and shoes at their own price. John says no competition from any source can offer such bargains as he is now offering.

HEAVY ATTACHMENT.—While the circus was in Virginia the manager got in a dispute about a bill with an employe, claiming that it was twenty dollars less than the man wanted. The manager was firm, whereupon the man levied an attachment on the big elephant for the amount. The constable was leading the monster away down the street, when he was called back and the claim paid. The question is what would that man do with the elephant if he had kept it

LUNAR RAINBOW.—Last evening at [illegible], while the lightning was playing fiercely in the northern sky, a most beautiful lunar rainbow was visible. At the western end the colors of a sun's rainbow were plainly seen. Just outside of this was another, only much fainter. The inky black background and the bright moon served to give this "fairy child of vapor and the sun" a peculiar lustre and beauty.

SHERMAN & HYDE'S COLUMN.—We call attention to the column advertisement of Sherman & Hyde, of San Francisco, Pacific Coast agents for the Weber Piano and wholesale and retail dealers in sheet music, music books and musical merchandise. For pianos, organs or any article in the music trade, we advise you to consult Sherman & Hyde, who will do as well, if not better, by you, than any other house on the Coast. Remember what we tell you.

PERSONAL.—Mrs. Julia Prescott returned home last night after a five weeks sojourn in San Francisco. She has been selecting one of the most elegant stocks of goods, millinery and fancy, ever seen in market. The stock will commence to arrive in a day or two and then our lady friends can see for themselves.

THE WEATHER.—The oldest inhabitant admits that this is very curious weather. For the past two evenings we have had thunder and lightning, and some rain. We hope the lightning will not do any more damage in this vicinity. It is not pleasant to have it playing around your feet.

SELLING OUT.—R. M. Cohen offers splendid inducements for the next thirty days to all who wish fine custom made clothing and furnishing goods. Give him a call before purchasing elsewhere.

PICKPOCKET.—Constable Barlow and Officer Avery yesterday saw a man pick the pocket of R. W. Holt, and secure $60. They promptly arrested him, and took him before Judge Gilson.

KENO.—The room in the rear of Amos Alf's saloon is being enlarged, and fitted up for a keno room. When a fellow says keno, all the others belch s-ugar.

PAVILION.—The work of clearing out the V. & T. R. R. freight depot for the purpose of getting the pavilion ready for use will be commenced Monday next.

ANOTHER SALOON.—Anselmo Torrelli & Co. have opened a saloon in the building formerly occupied by Grey & Isaacs. No. 28.

BOOTS and shoes made to order and neatly repaired at Sunderland's. He keeps everything in the boot and shoe line, and sells at San Francisco prices. *

LEADER.—Mr. Christopher Green is the leader of the Franktown Brass Band instead of Nat. Holmes. Honor to whom honor is due.

IN CINCINNATI.—Rev. W. J. Clark is in Cincinnati visiting friends and relatives. His sister's health is greatly improved.

FOR SALE.—A No. 1 Chickering Piano, new and in complete order. Enquire of Mrs. Simon Fisher, North Viaginia street. *

THE firm of J. N. Jauquish & Co. has dissolved by mutual consent, Mr. E. Pierce retiring.

FOR ladies' fine sandal slippers and toilet slippers, go to Sunderland's.*

FOR first class boots and shoes go to Sunderland's, on Virginia St. *

SITUATION WANTED.—By an experienced woman, who understands housekeeping in all of its branches, or to do chamber work in a hotel or lodging house. No objection to going into the country. Inquire for further particulars at the Western House. *

THE Flying Gallery will return to Reno during the State Fair. Wait and get good pictures cheap. *

FOR SALE.—A large fine pair of blood mares, and a 3¼ inch axle wagon. Apply the Stephen Conner, at the nursery. *
